ADMISSION AND MEDICAL SERVICES AGREEMENT – READ CAREFULLY BEFORE SIGNING

1. UCLAH: UCLA Health (UCLAH) is part of the University of California and is comprised of its hospital(s), medical center(s), its hospital-based clinics, its Primary Care Network clinics, the UCLA Medical Group; and the David Geffen School of Medicine.

2. MEDICAL CONSENT: I consent to medical treatments or procedures, X-ray examinations, drawing blood for tests, medications, injections, taking of medical photographs, videotaping, laboratory procedures, and hospital services rendered to me under the general and special instructions of the physicians or other health care professionals assisting in my care. I also consent to my admission to the UCLA Medical Centers if this is necessary for my care.

3. TEACHING, RESEARCH AND HEALTHCARE INSTITUTION: The University of California including UCLAH, is a teaching, research and healthcare institution. I understand that residents, interns, medical students, students of ancillary health care professions (e.g., nursing, x-ray, rehabilitation therapy), post-graduate fellows, and other trainees may observe, examine, treat, and participate at the request and under the supervision of the attending physician in my care as part of the University's medical education programs. Some UCLAH faculty are identified by their name badge as "Visiting Professors". These faculty members do not have a California license, but are licensed in another state or country. These physicians are permitted to practice medicine in California under a special program developed by the Medical Board of California.

I also understand that a University institutional review board approves projects conducted by University researchers in accordance with state and federal law. As a result, I understand that I may be contacted and asked to participate in research studies but I am under no obligation to do so. My decision whether to participate or not will not affect my ability to obtain medical care.

4. USE OF MEDICAL INFORMATION AND SPECIMENS: I understand that my medical information, photographs, and/or video in any form may be used for other UCLAH purposes, such as quality improvement, patient safety and education. I also understand that my medical information and tissue, fluids, cells and other specimens (collectively, "Specimens") that UCLAH may collect during the course of my treatment and care may be used and shared with researchers. I understand that under California law, I do not have any rights to any commercially useful products that may be developed from such research. I further understand that any use of my medical information or Specimens by UCLAH or other research institutions will be in accordance with state and federal law, including all laws and regulations governing patient confidentiality, in the manner outlined in the UCLAH Notice of Privacy Practices.

5. PERSONAL VALUABLES: UCLAH maintains fireproof safes for the safekeeping of money and valuables. UCLAH shall not be liable for the loss of or damage to any money, documents, jewelry, glasses, dentures, furs or other articles of unusual value and shall not be liable for loss or damage to any personal property, unless deposited in a safe or locked storeroom. The liability for loss of any personal property deposited with UCLAH shall be no more than $500.

6. RELEASE OF MEDICAL INFORMATION: The State of California Information Practices Act requires UCLAH to provide the following information to individuals who supply information about themselves. As a patient of UCLAH, I will be asked to submit certain personal information, such as my address and phone number, Social Security number, insurance information, medical history and treatment. The principal purpose for requesting this information is to ensure accurate identification, continuity of medical care, and payment for such care. Under the authority of The Federal Privacy Act of 1974, Article IX, Section 9 of the California Constitution, the California Information Practices Act (Civil Code 1798 et seq.), California Code of Regulations, Title 22, Section 70749, UCLAH is authorized to maintain this information. As required by UCLAH, furnishing all information requested is mandatory unless otherwise noted. I understand that failure to provide such information may affect my medical care and/or insurance benefits and coverage.

UCLAH will obtain my written authorization to release information about my medical treatment, except in those circumstances when UCLAH is permitted or required by law to release information (see UCLAH' Notice of Privacy Practices for a description of the specific circumstances under which UCLAH may release this information). For example, UCLAH may release a copy of my patient record to health care providers, health plans, governmental agencies and workers' compensation carriers. Additionally, I understand that if I am diagnosed with a reportable disease in California, including but not limited to cancer, HIV, tuberculosis, and viral meningitis, UCLAH is required by law to report my diagnosis to governmental organizations such as the State Department of Health Services or the Center for Disease Control and Prevention.

7. FINANCIAL AGREEMENT: I understand that even if I have insurance. I may be financially responsible for some or all of my medical services. For instance, if I have a co-pay or deductible, I agree to pay the amounts I owe. If I do not have insurance that covers the service I receive, I agree to pay The Regents of the University of California for professional, hospital and clinic services, including UCLAH physician services, in accordance with the regular rates and terms of UCLAH. I also agree to pay for other professional services provided at UCLAH by other health care providers. If I am unable to pay, I understand I may qualify for public assistance, special payment arrangements and/or charity care. I also understand that when this agreement is signed by my spouse, parent or a financial guarantor, my spouse, parent or financial guarantor shall be jointly and individually liable with me for payment, including all collection fees (attorneys' fees, costs and collection expenses), in addition to any other amounts due. Unpaid accounts referred to outside agencies for collection bear interest at the current legal rate.

8. ASSIGNMENT OF BENEFITS (INCLUDING MEDICARE BENEFITS): I authorize and direct payment to UCLAH of any insurance benefits including hospital insurance and unemployment compensation disability benefits otherwise payable to or on my behalf for UCLAH services, including emergency services, at a rate not to exceed UCLAH actual charges. I understand that I am financially responsible for charges not paid pursuant to this agreement. I further agree that any credit balance resulting from payment of insurance or other sources may be applied to any other account owed to UCLAH by me.
